Some of the opposition press in the South strive to find some crumbs of comfort in the hope that the Democratic party will differ on the Kansas question and divide, so that the opposition will have a chance in 1860; as well as the gratification of witnessing a wrangle in the Democratic party. It is well the disappo nted can extract comfort out of such unpromising material. They rival the French cook, who served up a first-rate dish out of show for the South would be at an end, and the reign of Black Republicanism would surely begin-The South would, indeed, ent a sorry figure; for the programme of the next canvass would be the enpress now point to a union of all the elements against the Democratic party. We guess, however, that these forebodings will not alarm any one in this State. Their authors have shown to by him, and to its curious contents: the whole country a degree of ignorance of publie opinion, and the strength of parties, that onght to shame a schoolboy. One of the organs, with the election returns before him, asserts that Buchange has not even a plurality of the poular vote; from which it is understood that the editor has not improved in judgment at all; but is rather declining in his knowledge even of ciphering,

We are told, however, that the Sontbern Democracy have for their object the admission of Kansas as a slave State, whilst the Northern Demorracy intend to make Kansas a free State. Mr. Buchanan will take measures to favor one or the grow up. Now the freedom shriekers have sworn, and the Know Nothings have generally aided and the Know Nothings have generally aided them in propagating what they swore, that the federal government has been supporting measures pointed out, and there diligently search for said to make Kansas a slave State. They have done to make Kansas a slave State. They have done likely they will succeed any hetter hereafter. Tho Democratic party and Mr. Buchanan will not take measures to make Kansas a free or slave State. They have so declared North and South, and they will have no difficulty la keeping the pledge. On the the contrary, it would require some invention, and a good deal of effort to accomplish anything on either side. The people of Kansas will bo left to do their own voting and manage their owa businese. They are about as competent to do it as the people of Kentucky or Indiana, and the Democracy North and South will accept Kansas as a State on the conditions her own people make. They have so told their constituents everywhere, and have been elected with that distinet understanding; they have, therefore, no temptation to do otherwiss. The opposition have made all they could ont of this subject, and it now offers a poor prospect for capital in future. They have failed since 1854, and fallen back with much to help them that will not be available a second time.

If the factions, bowever, desire a little comfort, they can fixter themselves with these harmless speculations. They are, at best, unacquainted with thomselves, and always at fault when they by the police cutside the gete, and made to respeculations. They are, at best, unacquainted speculate about the Democratio party. 1: is a subject they don't understand, and never will contain anything about. With this premised, let maintained war," so graphically described by the faithful amuse and delude each other with | bim as heing in the Charity Hospital, or "in cer false hopes. They seem to relish the employment, and let them enjoy it. The opposition factions are consuling themselves over the fact that their two candidates got more votes than Buchanan. We don't see much comfort for them in that, unless one of their candidates could have got more than Buchanan, and they will never agree on that point conerally. The Fremonters will not that point generally. The Fremonters will not agree that Fillmore could have beaten Buchanan. and the Fillmourners will not agree that Fremont could have done it. They may run a man la each State next time, and perhaps manage to get still more votes; hut that will be a very unprofitable subject to boast of.

Coul! Coal!

The present condition of the coal trade in this fity, and which is too much as it has been for years past, suggests strongly the importance of Sading another market that will not fail us with the caprices of the Ohio river that is dried upone part of the year, and frozen up the remainder. Coal at thirty or forty cents a bushel is a most operous tax on the people of Louisville. It is idle to talk of our people supplying themselves with coal in the spring or fall when it's cheap. Some will not do it, and the great mass cannot. We want to get a snp. ly from some source that will not depend on such contingencies. We have or, we forebore the expression of our pain and mot seen the coal hads of Grayson county, but we mortification at the shatting up of so many of the stores in the most frequented thoroughfares the stores in the most frequented thoroughfares they are good, and sufficient to furnish an abundant supply. They are only sixty miles from this city, and are accessible by a branch of the Nashville road of only fifteen miles in length. If it will have no advantage over the Pittsburg market at some seasons of the year, it will furnish a supply when the river fails, as it is in the habit of doing. Establishments that use steam power are constantly liable to embarrassments by the exorbitant price of coal; nor is there any remedy for the evil but another market, not liable to the same finetuations. A company that would purchase the Grayson coal beds, if they are as valuable as they are said to be, could construct the branch road, and make a profit at 121/2 cents per bushel-perhaps less, and it would save hundreds of thousands to this city. We have often mentioned the burden this city is subjected to, and spasmodic efforts have been made to relieve it, but they have ended in nothing; and all schemes that depend on anything but individual interest will end in like manner. Let's have a plan where capitalists invest for a profit, and where a profit can be made at the business, and the object will be accomplished. Now, if this coal in Graycocounty is as plentiful and valuable as it is so to be by good judges, it would certainly pay band in about half-past six o'clock o. Wednessome interest in the investment necess to possible the riot at the Seventeen Ward House on the some interest in the investment necess to possible the riot at the Seventeen Ward House on the some field and shill a here. chase the coal field, and build a bre ffteen miles in length. We hope, ' fore, that capitalists will examine into this natter, and see if they can't make money at it; and at the same sources from which we now get our supplies. We see that Rhett, of South Carolina, is still after the great object of his life, the disse'ution of the Union; and he hopes to live to see it accomplished. We are just like him; we hope he won't live to see any such event; and moreover, we hope nobody else will live long enough to see time, supply us with coal, in competition with the

We have already published a number of ietails of outrages committed by the Know-Nothings of New Orleans at the late election in that city. We now give another which in point of atrockty has never been surpassed in any country professing to be governed by a code of written

It is surpassingly strange that the respectable and order-loving inhabitants of our clties do not nnite in crushing out a political organization which has uniformly brought disgrace and soandal upon their names. Such lawless scenes are never beard of except where they have unfortunately gotten power, and it is an inherent vice of the organisation and the intolerant dectrines it teaches:

[From the True Delta.] Know-Nothinglam in New Orleans-Cownrdly Outrage.

Among the inexplicable outrages which the Mayor of this city has been persuaded by his as-sociates to perpetrate or authorize—for we cannot helieve they are spontaneously suggested by him -none appears to us so wanton, so canseless, or so upprovoked as the obslaught made in his name at six o'clock on the morning of the election, by persons baving his warrant in their pocket, on the French cook, who served up a first-rate dish out of dry chips and scraps of old shoe leather. It must, however, be very consoling to Kentuckians to had reason to believe and did believe "that arms loarn that the Northern Democracy will join the freedom shriekers, for then the chences for any Charity Hospital," and "in certain houses in the Charity Hospital," and "in certain houses in the neighborhood, which he would point out," and upon this statement the Mayor of this city, illegally, unjustly, and in a spirit of mest dangerous and unvarrantable uscurpation, dispatched a body of officers to search the Charity Hespital and programme of the next canvass would be the en-suon "certain houses in the neighborhood" as this secret policosgont or whatever other relation evident that the outgivings of the Know-Nothing he may hold to Mayor Waterman, might, for reasons of his owr, see fit to denounce. That we may not be accused of rashly or unjustly charg-ing Mayor Waterman in this affair, we ask our readers' attention to the following warrant, signed

THE STATE OF LOUISIANA, RECORDER'S OFFICE, PARISH OF ORLEANS,

City of New Orleans, First District.)
To the Chief of Police or any Constable of New Occass, Greeting:
Whereas, complaint has been made, on oath of A. P. Poillipe, before me, Charles Waterman, May-or of the city aforesaid, that from information re-ceived, deponent has reason to believe, and verily believes, that arms and munitions of war are conocaled within the Charity Hospital, or in certain houses in the neighborhood, which deconent will point out to the officer. Affiant, therefore, prays that a search warrant may issue, so said arms may be scized, to prevent bloodshed this day; and that the parties in whose possession said arms other, and thus a very interesting quarrel will are found be arrested and dealt with according to Witness my hand the 4th day of November, 1856.

CHAS. M. WATERMAN, Mayor. By virtue of this authority, a gang of what are termed police visited the Charlty Hospital about daybreak, placed sentinels at all the gates of the premises, and forhade ingress or egress until they had made their search, and returned to their ex-pectant head. Every portion of the building de-voted to public purposes was earefully and minutely examined, and to make the indignity and outrage complete, the operiments exclusively devoted to the Sisters of Charity, whom our readers know are wisely charged with the care of the afflicted in the institution, were then and there brutally violated, under the pretext that they also might be implicated in the buriness of concealing arms and munitions of war for some purpose knows only to Mayor Waterman and his secret police Of course the greatest diemay and lerror possessed these simple-minded, plaus women, at this most disgusting violation of thoir apartments, which disgusting violation of their apartments, which was greatly increased by the gallant behavior of the mounted indians engaged for the election, who had, probably by concert, about this time arrived at the hospital and displayed their horsemanship and bowle-knives to those afrighted women and inmates of the huilding.

We ask any citizen, who is capable of a mo ment's reflection, whether such disgraceful viola tions of decency and law can be approved of by him? We ask him if he ever heard or read or any such shuse of power, any such open disregard of the law and natural rights of American citi inspire universal dread by their presence, to enter the dwellin s of such persons they may, for reasons of their own, choose to violate, under the false and rascally pretext that "arms and munitions of war" are therein concealed? Had the inmates of any such buildings shot the violator of their dwellings like dogs, so far as the laws of the land are concorned, they would be held guilt less of any crime; but, as the laws are no longer for the safety of the citizens, but for his oppres-sion, it is perhaps wise that prudence should have prevailed over menhood and right.

Some one may ask what was the return made y the searchers for "arms and munitions of war" Mayor Waterman. Here it is as we find it on he back of the search warrant:

"The within warrant, received at 6 c'clock, a. and forthwith proceeded to the Charity Ho pital, and after due and diligent search, make this my return. Nothing funnd. C. H. FORNO, Sergeant of Police We made no comment upon the deplorable state of the public mind on the day of the election Caring more for the fair famo of our city than we from an apprehension, not unreasonable on the part of their inmates, that there was no adequate that it was consequently the part of wisdom to lose their shops rather than rick their contents being exposed to the ruffians who are now allowed to rule supreme here. This fear was the more natural as persons hearing of the violation of houses under the pretext that they contained arms and manitions of war, naturally inferred that under a similar protext the most frightful villainie might be committed with perfect impunity. We hope Mayor Waterman will he able to offer some instification of his unwarrantable conduct, an

[For the Louisville Democrat.] The Painter's Clock. BY WM. P. BRANNAN.

Tick, tick, tick 1 Secure in my dusty niche With cob-web drapery sheding my feee I look through the gloom of my hiding place On my Master forlorn, who with sad glimsee, Sings in a key of dolorous pitch The song of the Artist race.

"Drew, draw, draw The human foce divinehe eye of love or the lips of seorn, he ambitious air of the lowly bornhe haughty sneer by the purse-proud worn: Each varied visage with cease less line, orever compelled to draw

"Sketch, sketch, sketch Abroad in the fields, with nervous skill, The stalwart trees or the humble groves, Wherebirds and poets sing their loves— The low that hed cot or the mansion fair We sketch, and dream our home is there; But the light departs and a sable veil D'ershadows a joy so rare. "Paint, psini, paint !

From dawn till dusky even-An endless toil for bread and fame, The fevered mind and the weary froms Through night and day ore awake the same; No Sebbath—so sacred to sinner end saint— No rest but the rest in Heaven." Thus singeth my master, with dolorous pitch

As he throngs the pele canvas with life; Whilst the vivid flash of his pencil stroke Now rives the heart of the stubborn oak, Or, with graceful touch, the beauty rare Of a maiden portrays forever there; As he limns a brow o'ercharged with thought, Like a jutting cloud with thundering frought,
I behold from my shadowy niche. Thus consumeth his heart and his brain, Enkindled with rap ure his pencil bestows,

For the glories he mingles forever remain, And through time and life's wilderness bloom as a room He works amid sad and gay colors of earth To leave a fame-pyramid worthy his birth— The picture remains of his toil.

Fuel for the Poor. If our memery is not at fanit, tax-payers were romised, as an inducement to them to consent o aloan of the city's credit for the benefit of the Lonisville and Frankfort Railroad, that they would be paid for the expenditure by a reduction in the price of fuel and in the farming products. The golden pipes in the open air during the solemn road was built, and how have these promises been verified?

Our correspondent "B." is somewhat practical and pointed in his reference to this subject: To the Editors of the Louisville Democrat : Owing to the lowness of the river and the present old weather, with a prespect of a continuance of oth, the poor of our city must necessarily suffer or the wart of fuel, and, therefore, some means should be devised by which a supply can he obsided. I am informed that a sufficient quantity of wood could always be supplied, provided the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad would concept to draw it hore; which I understand they peremptorily refuse to do, for the very selfish reason that it would become scarce along the road, and hey would thoreby suffer.

A gentleman of my acquaintance living about is miles from here, sometime since had cut 100 cords of wood expressly for this market, and could not get the road to haul it for persussion or monoy, he promising to load and unload it himself. If such he the case gentlemen, the said railroad, to say the least, is of very little advantage to this city.

Senator Douglas and General Shields in Cieveland.

On Thursday evening the Democrats of Cleveand bad a jollification and general rejoicing over the results of the late election. Senator Douglas and General Shiolds were accidentally present, heing on their way to Washington City. They were eseived with great enthusiasm. In noticing the sception the Plain Dealer says:

"The tree on which the Biack Republicans hung and burnt the efficy of Sonator Douglas, as a taken of their bitter fooling toward the Nebrasias Bill two years age, was illuminated by the Democrats lass night with a bundred lights." Senator Donglas and General Shields made very neat speeches, and the whole affair passed off to the unbounded satisfaction of the Democrats

It was not in his power to grant her request; but she called herself hy a familiar name, and argued that, as the late queen's governante, she had a right to see her before she was huried. He wavored for some time; but she became so urgent, that he could excuse himself no longer. He therefore led her into the room, and having closed the door upon her, walked up and down outside. After a while he stopped, listened, and peeped through the key hele; when, le ! he babeld the dead queen the key hole; when, le I he beheld the dead queen sitting upright and whispering to the lady, with her eyes closed, and without any sign of life beyond a slight movement of the lips. He ordered the soldiers to peop, one after the other, and all of them saw the same thing. When he himself returned to the key hole the dead queen was slowly resuming her former position on the statehed. Soon afterwards the lady came out of the room and was conducted deep states by the caproom, and was conducted down stairs by the cap-tain, who felt, while he led her to the sarrisgs, that her hand was as cold as ice. The coach went of as fast as it had come, and the captain percoired that the horses breathed fire in the distance. On the following morning news arrived that the govvernants who lived at a country house, had died at the very hour at which she had sat by the dead body. THE MYSTERIOUS ORGAN. - About an hour's ourney from Albersweller, and in a hoautiful val-er, lies the village of Eusserthal, which takes its name from a convent that was once celebrated but has now completely disappeared. The choir of the convent church is, however, still left, and is now used as a place of worship. All series of things are said in the village about the enormous weal; of the convent, especially about a certain golden organ that once stood in the church and was played during divine service. When the convent on one constion was attached by conomies, the first one of the morks was to scoure this treasure. They dragged it to a marsh which was formerly. in the valley, and each it as deep as they could. However, they had saved their treasure to no jur-pose, in assuach as they were compelled to field and died in distant parts, while the convent fels in ruin. IMPROVEMENT IN BOOTS AND SHORS -An En-THE DOUBLE DEATH.—A cortain queen lay dead on her bed of state in a room hung with black. At night the reom was lighted with wax tapers, and a captain with forty-nine men was stationed on guard in an ante-chamber. Towards midnight the captain hearing a coach-and-six draw up to the castle, went down to meet it, when he was met by a lady of noble appearance, clad in mourning, who asked his permission to remain a short time by the dead body. He objected that it was not in his power to grant her request; but the foot, there is stamped, or otherwise formed from leather, gutta-percha, or sultable material for the under sole of boots and other like articles, a piece which forms the sole, walst, and seat of the heel. The seat is hollowed in the center, and is formed on the luside with a sunk plunge or cim for the reception of the heel. The plan presents decided advantages. THE RAILEOAD CASE.—The case of Tellon and others against the Sandusky Railroad Company, progressed slowly until yesterday morning, when was summarily continued until next term. One of the great points in this case was to make cut that three-fourths of the citizens of New Albany did not petition for the city's subscription to the railroad. The plaintiffs summoned a large number of witnesses to prove this, and Judge Bicknell being desirous of getting through with the business of the term, in order to go East, appointed D. C. Anthony and Geo. V. Howk, commissioners to examine all the witnesses upon this point and report at the next regular term of the Court, in April park and Tribage 15th Court, in April next .- N. A. A CAUSE OF DEFEAT .- Une of the main cause of the overwhelming defeat of the Know-Nothince, is the fact that their voters were not all "brought out." We have just heard of a "straw" which we never saw published in the organ here, but which plainly indicates that Fillmore had strength somewhere. The following is the result of a ballot among the convicts of the Louisville Work-house, taken the day before the Presidential

Buchanan. Fremont, Of this number nine were released on election day, with the view of allowing them to exercise

THE FEAT ACCOMPLISHED .- A gentleman from the country madd a bet on Saturday that his two year old colt, greon from the pastures, could travel, in barness, twenty miles in two hoursthe trial to no made on Monday morning, between the hours of fice and ten o'clock. The owner having more confidence in his own management of the celt than in any one else, made the trial, and easily won the wager. The borse, we learn, bore up gallantly under the drive, and performed the at, with ease, fifteen or eighteen minutes inside f time. He was afterwards sent to his owner's home in the country, some eighteen miles from where the race was ended. Good esit that !

ANNIVERSARY .- The memoers of the Society of St. Stephens, calebrated their fourth aurivereary, by a public parade in the streets pesterday, closing with a grand ball at Odl Fellow's Hail last night. This is a charitable order which merits the admiration and encouragement of our eitiz ms. They have purchased and endowed a burial-ground mear the city, which may be used free of cost by the sein indigent circumstances. They wet lacked a small . um of money in carrying out their objects, and the ball last night was intended to mike no the deficiency. We sincerely hope the society met with abundant success.

ATTEMPT TO THEOW A TRAIN OFF THE TRACK The Laft yette Journal states that one day last week some atrocious villains placed obstructions on the track of the New Albany and Salem Road, between Bainbridge and Greencastle, with the evident design of throwing the express from the South of the track. A number of cross ties were piled on the track, over a cattle guard, in a curve of the road. The lecometice was thrown off, bu no other damage was done. It is to be hoped the villaine, who thus deliberately plauned the destruction of the train, can be ferreted out and mest with their deserts.

DEATH BY CAMPHENE .- At South Gurdiner. Me . on Tourslay last, Mrs. Lorenzo Chency took a fluid lamp to go into the celler of her house, when, as is supposed, ber foot slipped and she fell, striking the lump on a barrel, scattering the fluid over ber per on and setting fire to her clothes. She immediately rushed into the street, her clothes ail in firms, and ran towards a neighbor's house. There was a high wind blowing, which increased he fi me, and before eil could reach her she was horrably barasi. She lived about six hours, suffering extraciating ageny.

SLAVEST AND DIVINITY. - Henderson Willigms, a colered man, was brought in from the work house yesterday, where he had been incarcerated upon the charge of being a slave, professing to be free. Handerson is a minister of the Gospel, of the Baptist persuasion, and In the year 1835 had been sold to the Baptist congregations of Frankfort and Grongetowa, by Mr. Shotwell, for $1 000. Those congregations subsequently and their claim upon him-he agreeing to pry a balance of $500 himself for his freedom. Mr. Shotwell's testimony was satisfactory in his favor, and Henderson went soot-free.

SUSPECTED FELON-GOING HIS OWN BAIL. George (alian John) Watson was arrested on the wherf, charged as a suspected folon and with stealing a pair of shoes, for which he was brought before the City Court yesterday. Watson has a very bad reputation emorg the police, and is generally especifed to be a thief. The Court held him to bail in $500 for six menths, and the accused would have gone to the Work-house, but cluding the viglance of the Court, he gave "leg-bail," and has not since been seen by the anthorities.

TER RIVER MAIL -A daily river mail between Louisville and St. Louis is loudly called for by the cltimens of the two cities and the people along shore. The department has been petitioned with a view to its establishment, and it is hoped that the petition will be granted.

NEWS FROM CHINA .- The latest news from China is that the rebess are gaining ground, hav-ing recently made some important conquests and accessions of power. A tremendous freshet had occurred at Canton. All the streets were submerged daily for a fortnight, and much properly had been destroyed. The great Pagoda, fourteen ceu-turies old, had been undermined by the water, and had fallen, burying the pricets beneath it.

COPARTNERSHIP NOTICE -It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that Mr. F. A. Crump has associated with him in the book business, Mr. J. H. Welch, formerly of Oldham but now of curcity. The firm, under the style of Crump & Welch, will continue the business at the old stand, No. 84 Fourth street.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT .- Alexander Falos ner, the treasurer and ticket agent of the Peters burg (Va.) Railroad Company, has been arrested and placed in jail, on a charge of embezzling the funds of the company. He has been in the employ of the company some eighteen or twenty year, is a man of family, was considered honest, industr. n, persovering, and punctual, and bal amassed apprety in real estate, each, &s., to the amount of property in real estate $20,000 or $30,000.

Exciting Arrest.

Considerable excitement was created in some ircles yesterday by the publication and circulallon of a card, containing personal reflection upon certain individuals in this city. The reputed authorers, Miss Eliza Campbell, was accested yesterday afternoon by Officer Badgett, and will he examined before the Police Court this morning. The excitement in relation to the affair la interes, and there will doubtless be a large and sager attendance at the court room this morning.

THEATER.-Mr. Neafio had a full house night. The farce was very amusing. Mrs. Bernard's songs were received with the applause she always merits, and Mrs. Waldegrave's dance was much the best she has yot given. The remantic drama, Corsidan Brothers, was witnessed by the audience with most intense interest. Mr. Nonfie's personation of the Brothers was very excel lently done. There is very little in the play to call out the actor's ability. It Interests from its extramely remantio character, and that is sufficient in itself to please an audience. To-night it will be repeated with a song from Mrs. Bernard, dance from Miss Waldegrave, and a farce, which Brad'ey and Wood Benson are principals Secure your seats carly.

YOUTBFOL OPFENDERS-RECEIVING STOLES Goods .- Michael Donahue, Mike Cooney, and James Inwright, three youngerers, were arrested by Officer Ragan, of the Eighth Ward Police, and Frought before the City Court yesterday, charged with stealing old brass and cooper, and also small wagon and, in connection with them. Willliam Wenzell, a groom, was charged with buying the articles, knowing them to be stelen. The Donahue and Cooney boys confessed the crime be fore the Court, but Inwright professed to be enirely ignerant of the charge. The stelen proper ty was found in Wenzell's possession, and it appeared from the testimony that he had not only purchased it from the boys, but that he had taken advantage of their Ignorance and paid them for less than he had bought of them. Wenzell proved a good character, however, but the Court was warranted in holding him to answer the charge in $600 bail.

SPLENDID TOUSES IN NEW YORK .- As affording ome idea of the extent to which the "merchant princes" of New York have invested in private mansions, it is stated that there are at least a desen bouces in that city which cost from one anndred to one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, ri valling in magnificence almost any of the royal palaces of Europe and Inferior only in point of magnitude. The Journal of Commerce thus speaks of several of thom:

"One of our most elegant houses is that Charles A. Heckscher, just completed, ou the cor-ner of Fifth avenue and Thirteenth streets, and which is said to have cost in the neighborhood of ne hundred and fifty thousand dollars, althong whe building is of moderate dimensions, compared with same others, being thirty-nine by sixty-tw-feet, besides an extension of thirty-five by twonty ur feet which forms the library and dining-room and viewed externally its appearance is not re-markably estentations. The interior finishing and decorations, however, are very superb. In the main entrance there is a vestibule fitted for the teception of ordinary visiters, and close by the staticase ascends through an elliptical opening to ward a stained glass dome Immediately beneat the latter, on a massive base, is Kiss's celebrated bronze figure of the Shepherd attacked by a Pan-ther, and among other bronze decorations are duplicates of mantel ornaments possessed by Louis Napoleon. The mirrors are very massive, in cu-rionally wrought frames; the coilings are arched in strong relief, with a groundwork of water colurs marble. The library case is almost wholly of oak, and has a lofty archedosiling, ventilated from the top and surrounded with Tasa, Schiller, Geehe, and other celebrated personages. Other apart and other celebrated personages. Other apartments are provided for various amnesments, and all are fitted up with a view to secute the greatest possible amount of bodily comfort.

"Probably the most elegant dwelling in the city is that of M. O. Roberts, reputed to have cost in the neighborhood of two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars.

"The residence of Moses Taylor is a dwelling city of the company o Steed up in the most gorgeons style, not less that fifty-four thousand dollars having been expended in four or five of the apartments. One of these was fitted up at a cost of from twenty-five to thirty thousand dollars."

A Big Majority.—A unanimous vote in these days of high political excitement, when the whole country is divided and subdivided into political and religious organizations, is a result scarcely event has really occurred, is clearly proven. And it is an undenlable fact that on one subject the vote is unanimous, and that all parties, old and bail this time in $200 for his good behavior three and cure of rheumatism, pains in the back and shoulders. It has been used with the greatest success by thousands, and for the permanent cure
